

Abstract Landscapes With Nadine Johnson

Supply List

Nadine will be demoing on canvas or cradled birch panels.

The list of supplies is a guideline of materials that you can bring. Nadine will be using a variety of these supplies in her demonstrations.

REQUIRED ITEMS

- Bring a snack or lunch. Kensington has coffee and tea. There will be a break
- Bring 1 - 2 canvases or cradled birch panels. If you work fast you can bring a couple more. Any size is fine, but remember that we will be working in a group environment and need to be respectful of each other's space. If you are working on birch panels please prep them before class with gesso. You can work on paper if you prefer. You can bring a sketchbook or loose mixed media paper cut into sizes from 12"x12" up to 16"x20". You may bring a reference to work from, or work intuitively. Having an image for reference can be a great way to start if landscapes are not familiar to you.
- Tablecloth for your work surface
- Palette paper or a palette for your paint
- Gel medium for collage
- Apron
- Acrylic paint including black and white is required - the list below is a guideline, choose some of your favourites
- Pencil
- Coloured Pencils - Faber Castel is excellent, but you can use what you have
- Catalyst paint scraper or silicone bowl scraper - if you don't have this you can use a credit card, palette knife, or any type of spatula.
- 3 or 4 Paint brushes - a variety of sizes. An inexpensive "Chip" brush is good.
- 1 new roll of blue shop paper towels
- Mark-making tools, pencils, chopsticks, paint scrapers, palette knives, etc.
- Spray Bottle
- Collage papers, or anything that you would like to put in your painting. Old receipts, papers you've made or purchased, book pages, tissue paper, etc.

OPTIONAL

- A notebook or paper to take notes
- Trowel - Nadine's favourite tool! You can get these at any local hardware store.
- Water Based crayons - Stabilo Woody's are great
- Crayons
- Posca pens

- Acrylic markers
- Charcoal
- Brayer
- Blow dryer
- Scissors

Acrylic paints

A variety of colours would be good to bring. You can work with a limited palette as well. Pick 2 or 3 of your favorite colours and black and white. If you aren't sure what those are, you can ask the staff at Kensington Art Supply.
