

The Awakening with Jenny Baker

A Palette Knife Painting Workshop

Supply List

- Canvas
  - I used a 30X30" canvas for the reference painting, but will use a 20X20" canvas for the demo in class. This painting lends itself very nicely to a square canvas, but you are more than welcome to use a canvas size of your choice.
- A long pie shaped palette knife
- A variety of brushes
  - A 1-2" bristle brush is helpful and a variety of brushes that include a liner brush or small round.
- Paper towel any art supplies you find helpful in a workshop
- Plastic table cloth to cover your table in the studio
- A medium sized jar of modeling paste
- A medium sized jar of heavy gel
- A drawing pencil
- Acrylic paints I used
  - burnt Umber,
  - white gesso,
  - titanium white,
  - neutral grey,
  - Naples yellow,
  - raw Sienna,
  - yellow ochre,
  - Paynes grey,
  - Cerulean blue.

Note: You are welcome to choose a different palette if you would like to change the color scheme.
